

CAREER MANAGEMENT IN A DOWNTURN – FOR FINANCE PROFESSIONALS -
April 2 SOLD OUT

How to use the crisis to find other opportunities in Finance and in the Corporate world?

Lunch session led by Gael de Roquefeuil WG'90, a headhunter based in Paris, former banker who lived in the US, UK and Asia for 16 years before returning home to Paris in 2002.

Opportunity for networking in a small group and through a highly interactive Q&A format, reflect on the potential changes needed in their professional lives because of the current crisis, e.g. returning home, moving to a different product within finance, or shifting to a corporate. How to use the market downturn to identify new opportunities?

DATE: Monday, April 2nd

TIME: 12h30 to 14h30

VENUE: ROYAL OCEAN RACING CLUB

20 St James' Place
London SW1A 1NN
Nearest tube: Green Park

Based in Paris, Gael de Roquefeuil WG'90 is the Founder and Managing Partner of ROC Partners (www.rocpartners.net). He specializes in financial services and is highly experienced in national and international searches in alternative investments (hedge funds / private equity / real estate), asset management, insurance, investment banking and private banking. Prior to founding ROC Partners, Gael was a senior client partner in the financial services practice of Korn/Ferry International in Paris. He returned to Paris in 2002 after 16 years abroad in New York, Tokyo, Singapore and HK working for Goldman Sachs, UBS, and Smith Barney.

REGISTRATION: Prior registration is required, no walk-ins are allowed.
Registration is limited to 8 Alumni only.

COST: Club Members £35 / Member's Guest £35
Includes three course meal, wine and coffee, and service charge.

Event kindly organized by Bruno Mathieu WG'88, Club Volunteer